Between cultural development discussions, standing up for our beliefs, tailgates with alumni, fun bonding days, dancing, and more, our minute community builds connections that makes our presence on campus unique. Our members come from different parts of the state, country, and the world, bringing together diverse cultures and perspectives to celebrate our melanin and Black excellence.

CCF: Chinese Christian Fellowship

Chinese Christian Fellowship aims to be a community where people can encounter God and become followers of His Son, Jesus Christ. Together we grow and encourage each other through fellowship, dedicated prayer, Bible study, worship, discipleship, and service. We also share in the general calling of the Navigators, which is “to know Christ and to make Him known.”

The Chinese Students' Association is one of the largest cultural clubs at Cal Poly. CSA is dedicated to embracing diversity and creating a "home away from home." We have 5 pillars including sisterhood, community service, social, academics and cultural awareness. We have chapters at UC Santa Barbara, Loyola Marymount University, Long Beach State, UC Davis, and UC Los Angeles.

ΓΖΑ: Gamma Zeta Alpha

In 1987, fifteen men came together to found what would later become Gamma Zeta Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Recognizing the difficulties facing Latinos in higher education, the founders sought to create an organization aimed at developing leadership, instilling academic scholarship, and creating an environment of support that integrated Latino heritage.

ΛΦΕ: Lambda Phi Epsilon

Lambda Phi Epsilon will perform a stepping and dance routine. Stepping is a dance based on making rhythms and beats using the human body through a series of stomps and claps. Stepping represents our unity as a brotherhood and expresses our passions through the sounds we make.

ΛΣΓ: Lambda Sigma Gamma

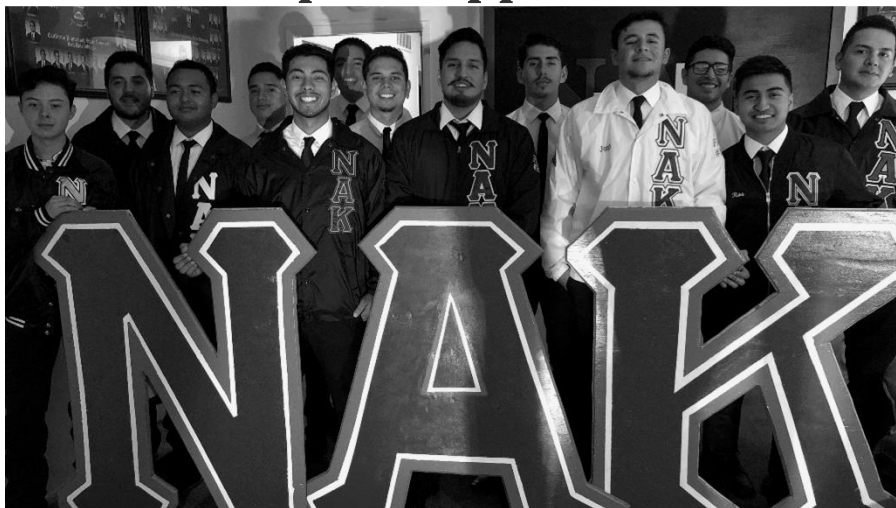

Our purposes are to instill the desire for self improvement, scholastic excellence and the cultivation of civic responsibility; to promote unity and higher education amongst women. We seek to unite and involve all students in a more harmonious and brotherly atmosphere through academic, social, and cultural means. There is a need to interface the various backgrounds that constitute the student body of our fraternal university chapter, in order to improve relations amongst all students and the community.

ΣΩΝ: Sigma Omega Nu

Sigma Omega Nu is the first Latina interest sorority founded and established at Cal Poly. At the time, no group existed specifically for the academic, cultural or family support of Latina women pursuing higher education. The eight Latina women who founded the sorority felt there was a need for a strong Latina voice on their campus and so they created an organization that would fulfill that unmet need.

ΩΞΔ: Omega Xi Delta

Omega Xi Delta is the first Asian-interest fraternity at Cal Poly. As an organization, we pride ourselves on three core virtues: brotherhood, cultural awareness, and gentleman-like conduct.
